TOWN FOREST

During the past year seventeen cords of wood have been cut for the use of the Town, as well as clearing away brush and rubbish along the roadside front. This together with the new signs erected and the growth of the trees greatly improves the appearance of our Town Forest.

Some of the Four-H Club boys have partially reset to white pine that portion which was burned over by a fire of unknown origin.

A dental clinic was held for the benefit of school children.

In July the annual tuberculosis clinic was held. Twenty seven people received a thorough chest examination by Dr. Kerr, T. B. Specialist. These clinics are held annually and anyone who wishes may attend.

A child Health Conference was held in September, under the direction of the Bureau of Maternity and Infancy and the local Red Cross. Thirty-four children were examined. Parents were advised regarding correction of defects.

In June toxin anti-toxin clinics were held to give parents who had not had their children immunized against diptheria the opportunity to do so. Between thirty and forty school and pre-school children received this preventative treatment.

GAFNEY LIBRARY

Librarians Report, Feb. 1, 1929 to Feb. 1, 1930

The Library has been open the usual time until the first of November when the Thursday evening session was cancelled for the cold weather.

The year's circulation was 6092, the attendance 4346, the number of borrowers 388, and the number of books catalogued 204.

We receive each year a box of books from the Free Public Library of Newark, New Jersey and we still have each year books from the Carnegie Endowment Fund.

The reading table has been supplied with a good number of magazines, which are mostly gifts to the Library.

We can use a great number of old magazines as they are sent to sick people and to the Carroll County Farm.

We are able to supply four stations with books, one in the Sanbornville Grammar school, and one at Brookfield, East Wolfeboro and South Wakefield. We are also able to give a collection each year to the County Farm and to the Union Library.

The summer people use the Library to a large extent during the season and they seem to appreciate the comfort of the reading room.

We still have our assistants Miss M. Olive Fogg, and Miss Marjorie E. Hatch who have continued their faithful work throughout the year.

CLARA M. GARVIN, Librarian

WAKEFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

Again we have come to the end of the year—a year prosperous in many ways, yet a year in which we have had more trouble and sorrow than usual. April 1st our beloved president, Mrs. Seth Low was called home. Mrs. Low had held this office ever since the death of her husband Hon. Seth Low. She was always interested in the library and gave generously toward its support. She will be greatly missed.

In July 1928 the library was struck by lightning, while there was no fire, walls and ceilings were badly damaged. This necessitated the moving of several thousand books. These were stacked in the vault until repairs were made and then moved back. The repairs took some time and we were without the use of these books during that time. Mr. Walter I Weeks gave most valuable assistance in moving.

The circulation for the year was fiction 1964, non-fiction 383, periodicals 916. A total of 3263.

We have purchased 73 books and received 121 by gift from the following persons: Miss Jane Abbott, Miss Elsie M. Blake, Miss Margaret Blake, Mr. Geo. A. Carpenter, Mr. James H. Coons, Mrs. W. R. Combie, Mrs. M. B. Haskell, Mrs. Ethel B. Mackenzie, Miss A. C. Milliken, Miss Emma Mills, Union Congregational Church, Mr. Walter I. Weeks.

For the reading table we have been receiving: Photo Era from Mr. A. H. Beardsley: American Household, People's Home Journal, Mrs. H. P. Cox: Saturday Evening Post, Country Gentleman, Ladies' Home Journal, Pictorial Review, Mrs. E. B. Mackenzie: National Geographic, Miss A. C. Milliken: Mc Calls, Mrs. J. S. Mooney: Literary Digest, Popular Mechanics, Mr. A. H. Paul: Harper's Monthly, Mrs. H. A. Paul: Atlantic, Miss May Pierce. From the respective editors we have regularly received American Issue, Brai Braith, Carroll County Independent, Federation News, Granite State News, Maz daz non, National Republic, School, School Life. Odd magazines have been given by many others.

Our thanks are due to Mr. H. O. Tripp for his usual contribution of $5.00.

We were much pleased to receive from Miss May Hanson of Wolfeboro, a blue and white china dish that had once belonged to the family of Parson Barker.

We are also grateful to Mrs. Wallace Lang for papers of historic interest.

Sept. 3rd, Dr. Geo. A. Smith Jr., gave a most pleasing moving picture entertainment in the library. Pictures were local. No admission.

Our building was painted on the outside. This expense was met by subscription.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Board of Wakefield:

Gentlemen,—It is my privilege to submit to you, and through you to the citizens of the town, my eleventh annual report as superintendent of the schools of Wakefield.

Last spring several changes were made in the supervisory unions in this vicinity. One union was eliminated, the towns of which it was composed being added to other unions. Supervisory Union No. 41 was one of the unions affected, it being enlarged by the addition of Farmington. The number of teachers in this union is now nineteen more than last year. With this addition to the union I am, of course, not able to give so much of my time to the Wakefield schools as formerly.

The following table contains the usual statistics relating to the schools:

STATISTICS FOR THE YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1929

School	Teacher	Total Enrolled	Average Membership	Average Attendance	Per Cent of Attendance	Number of Absences
Union Primary	Lillian Davis	28	22.08	21.24	96.19	11
Union Grammar	Blanche H. Barbour	19	17.81	17.14	96.23	2
Sanbornville 1-2	Abbie F. Tuttle	38	31.47	30.27	96.12	59
Sanbornville 3-4	Flora P. Brackett	28	26.47	25.82	97.54	37
Sanbornville 5-6	Callie M. Peters	30	26.60	26.03	97.86	12
Sanbornville 7-8	George A. Doe	16	14.31	13.88	97.00	3
Wakefield Corner	Valna I. Lover	29	23.68	22.46	94.88	50
East Wakefield	Frances S. Ross	24	19.61	18.64	95.05	1
	Totals and Averages	212	182.72	176.16	96.79	175

Although the attendance was considerably broken by epidemics of contagious diseases, the per cent of attendance is higher than the average for the state. The latter is 94.58 as compared with 96.79 for Wakefield.

The roll of honor which follows, contains the names of those pupils who were neither absent nor tardy for one or more quarters during the year.

With one exception our corps of teachers is the same this year as for the past two years. At Wakefield Corner Miss Lover is succeeded by Miss Myra F. Rourke, a graduate of Keene Normal School with three years experience in teaching.

The report of the school nurse will follow. You will note that clinics were given in dentistry and toxin antitoxin treatment. I hope that it will be possible to give dental clinics every year. In order for this work to be effective, it must be followed up year after year. I thank those organizations and individuals who have assisted in these clinics in the past, and I solicit their continued interest in the future.

Respectfully submitted,
FRED W. DUDLEY
Superintendent of Schools

In May a school dental clinic was held at Sanbornville by Dr. McLaughlin assisted by Mrs. Gilman, under the direction of the local Red Cross. Forty-seven pupils received treatment from this clinic.

Another series of toxin-antitoxin clinics were held in June, 1929, to give children who were not treated in 1928 the opportunity to take preventative treatment against diphtheria. Several school children received this treatment.

Contagious Diseases

Mumps were quite prevalent during the winter months in Union. Whooping cough was a common complaint during the summer and early Fall in Sanbornville, Union and East Wakefield. Many children received the whooping cough vaccine, which proved a helpful preventative and treatment.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. AGNES T. WEEKS, R. N.
